

WHY REV. CARSON SHAW LEFT CHURCH OF ADVENT

PASTOR GIVEN A CHECK

Vestrymen Desired Him to Retire Without Any Trouble.

Young People Did Not Want Him to Leave Parish.

Rev. Mr. Carson Shaw, popular clergyman and good fellow, left for Seattle last night.

He had resigned as pastor of the Church of the Advent in East Oakland and decided to cast his lot elsewhere.

REASONS FOR LEAVING.

There were reasons for the popular pastor leaving the little church on the corner in East Oakland.

The young people fairly idolized him.

The middle-aged people thought he was a good fellow.

But the old-dyed-in-the-wool religionists of the church did not like his worldly style; they objected to the frequent demands of the pastor's creditors; they threw up their hands when they heard he took a drink when he felt like it, and they did not like his free and easy way in saving sinners.

This section of the congregation is said to have gained control of the vestry board and they wanted Rev. Carson Shaw to find another pastorate.

WHAT THE WASP SAYS.

The San Francisco Wasp today gives this version of the story:

"Rev. Carson H. Shaw, pastor of the fashionable Church of the Advent of East Oakland, has been asked to resign by the trustees of the church. The polite and formal communication was accompanied by a request that the reverend gentleman accept from the congregation the sum of five hundred dollars, and sever all pastoral connections forthwith. The younger element among the congregation are discussing nothing else than the insult offered to their favorite, and have pronounced social anathema upon the heads of the unfeeling trustees. It is plain no one, not even the most genial of persons, can ingratiate himself with all the factions of a parish church."

"The Rev. Shaw, during his pastorate, has been popular with the younger set of the church. He is athletic, well-groomed, faultlessly attired, and genial, not to say jolly when the occasion is propitious. So it was that part of the flock felt particularly at home with him; he seemed to possess a fund of conversational material, which was the pleasantest means of lengthening the perfunctory pastoral call. With the young men sports was a topic never worn threadbare; with the ladies, society as he found it in Oakland, and as he had found it elsewhere. The older and more sedate element looked askance at his baseball playing, and deemed him frivolous for figuring as a scintillating star of the first magnitude at the social affairs of the church. These grave seniors should have palliated his shortcomings, for his arrival was the beginning of a stirring up of things matrimonial. He was indeed a sort of modernized, frock-coated Spring, whose coming turned every young man's fancy to thoughts of love. Such a crop of weddings was garnered in a few months as no church about the bay could boast of in as many years. Will the Rev. Wm. Carson Shaw weekly hand in his letter of resignation, and leave the church, where wedding fees, marriage feasts and swell functions rob parish work of much of its tedium? Or will he make a strong hand against the cruel attempt to oust him by unsympathetic officials?

"Those who have made an idol of the athletic clergyman have no words strong enough to express their indignation. They accuse the trustees in offering the five hundred dollars of bribery. They wish to pay him if he will but leave them quickly in peace. But whatever comes of the discord now brewing in the parish of the Church of the Advent, not the least smirch can rest on the fair fame of the 'pedestaled' pastor. The king can do no harm. And whether the alleged bribe be accepted or not, all blame shall be put where it belongs—upon the shoulders of the bribe-giver. That is what the young people of the flock are telling one another."

NO CHARGES.

The fact is that there were no charges against Dr. Shaw.

Some months ago the vestrymen gave him $600 and a long vacation, and they believed he would not return. But Dr. Shaw came back and took up his duties in the church.

Now it is a fact that the vestrymen have given $500 in cash and this closes up his connection with the church.

It is understood that Pastor Shaw settled up all his little bills around town before he left the city.

STUDENTS GIVEN A GRILLING

Professor Gayley Says
They Read Too Much
Cheap Stuff.

BERKELEY, October 20.—At a big University meeting held in Hearst Hall this morning Professor Charles Miller Gayley, head of the English department, declared in an extended address that in American Universities today there is little struggle for an ideal. He urged the students to study the great master-pieces of literature rather than the common place productions of modern times.

He deplored the lack of attention given to such writers as Shakespeare, Milton, Chaucer, Virgil, Tennyson, Burns, Browning, Hunley, Darwin, the Greek dramatists, and the philosophers Plato, Dante, and Aristotle. The learned professor's speech was a sensation among the students. In fact, he said: "How can you go through the University and lose the splendid opportunity afforded you to come in touch with great men. This is the time, when you, as students should absorb good literature. Instead of a lot of cheap stuff, which is read so rapidly that none of it is retained, or if it were retained, would be worth nothing."

"In the American University today there is little of that struggle after an ideal, a spiritual ideal, obtained by reading the products of the best minds of the ages. It is this struggle which made such men as Macaulay in England and Longfellow in America."

G. H. COLLINS SUCCEEDS
WILLIAM G. HENSHAW.

George H. Collins, a director of the Oakland Bank of Savings, has been elected a director of the Contra Costa Water Company to succeed William G. Henshaw, who resigned on account of the pressure of private business. Mr. Collins is a well known citizen and capitalist of Oakland.

FISHERMEN ARRESTED.

RED BLUFF, Cal., October 20.—Fish and Game Warden T. W. Birmingham has arrived here with two men from Tehama, arrested for catching salmon during the closed season. The accused men are John Galt and John Lewis. When arrested they had a large amount of salmon in their possession. At this season salmon are spawning on the upper river, and every precaution is being taken by the warden to prevent illegal fishing.

NOTED MINSTREL DIES.

TORONTO, Ont., October 20.—"Cool" Burgess, the well known minstrel, died in the General Hospital today of a complication of diseases.

GREAT STORM ON PRESIDENT VISITS LAKE ERIE

Steamer Goes Ashore and Lives are Lost; Men on Wreck Menaced by Waves.

BUFFALO SWEPT BY BIG GALES

CLEVELAND, October 20.—During a fierce storm on Lake Erie early today the steamer Sarah E. Sheldon went ashore east of Lorain. She carried a crew of thirteen men, a number of whom jumped overboard when the vessel began to go to pieces. At least two of the crew were drowned.

A telephone message from Lorain says the tug Kuhne Brothers succeeded in getting alongside the steamer Sheldon, which is ashore four miles east of that port, for a moment this morning.

JUMP FOR LIFE.

Five members of the crew jumped from the deck of the Sheldon to the tug. Before the other men on the steamer could make the leap, the tug was carried away by the gale and tremendous seas.

The captain of the tug found it impossible to again get near the steamer, and put back to Lorain and landed the men he had rescued.

The tug captain confirmed the report that two members of the crew of the Sheldon had jumped overboard when the steamer struck. They were provided with life preservers, but were swept out to sea and lost.

The steamer is now resting on a sandy bottom and is being pounded terrifically by the huge waves which wash completely over her. Some five or six of the crew still remain on the boat.

The Cleveland life-saving crew left with a surf boat this morning for the scene of the wreck, and it is thought will be able to rescue the men remaining on the vessel.

POUNDED TO PIECES.

The schooner Kingfisher, which went ashore just east of the Cleveland breakwater two weeks ago, is today being pounded to pieces on the beach.

The steamer F. H. Prince, a freight carrier, which left here last midnight, had a narrow escape. The big vessel was thrown on her beam ends repeatedly. She finally managed to re-enter the harbor.

SWEPT BY GALE.

DETROIT, October 20.—The lower lakes were swept last night by the heaviest storm of the season. Navigation across the Lime Kilns' crossing at the mouth of the Detroit river was entirely suspended today for an eight hour draft, the forty miles an hour southwest gale last night having lowered the stage of the water at the crossing to sixteen feet and ten inches, the lowest in many years.

Lake Huron this morning was lashed by a forty-two-mile gale off Alpena, while reports from Lake Erie today were that the wind blew thirty miles an hour.

On Lake Michigan last night a sixty-mile gale prevailed.

MUCH DAMAGE DONE.

MARINETTE, Wis., October 20.—The storm last night did $50,000 damage along the north shore of the Menominee river.

Derricks have been washed away, boat-houses torn to pieces and thousands of tons of coal washed into the bay. Many boats, tugs and gasoline launches were destroyed and quantities of logs were washed away.

The seas ran right up on the streets of Marinette, and Menominee. Fishermen along the shores of Green bay lost heavily in nets and boats. There was no loss of life, as vessels generally, it is believed, heeded the storm warnings.

PROPERTY WRECKED.

MENOMINEE, Mich., October 20.—It is estimated that $150,000 damage was caused to docks, lumber logs, and shipping by last night's fierce inshore wind.

Huge volumes of spray dashed forty feet high and wrecked everything along the shore for fifty feet from the water line.

LOSS IS GREAT.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., October 20.—Reports from the harbors along the east shore of Lake Michigan indicate that last night's storm was the most terrific known on the lake for many years. The damage to harbors, piers, etc., will amount to thousands of dollars.

At Holland the losses are estimated at $200,000. The south pier at this harbor has been entirely washed away and the lighthouse is badly wrecked.

Today the heaviest sea ever known there is still running. The surface of the bay is a mass of wreckage. The two-masted schooner Kate Lyons of Grand Haven struck on the north pier, breaking in two.

GALE IN BUFFALO.

BUFFALO, N. Y., October 20.—Buffalo was visited today by a fifty-one-mile gale, which destroyed plate glass windows, uprooted trees and blew down signs. Buttered by tremendous seas on Lake Erie, about 200 feet of the Government seawall was reported to have sunk to about level with the normal surface of the lake early today.

Beyond the sinking of the little boat Whistler in the harbor, no serious damage has been done to shipments of the water at the crossing to sixteen feet.

COLLEGE YELLS.

At the Georgia School of Technology

500 students will be ready to receive him with Harvard yell, mingled with their own college cry.

He will inspect the workshops and address the boys from a stand covered with the crimson of Harvard.

After a drive he is to return to his train.

Mrs. Roosevelt will be escorted to the Governor's mansion, where she will be given a reception and will watch the parade escorting the President. She will be escorted to her train in the line of march after the parade along Peach Tree street, and will take the train for Washington at a suburban station. The President is scheduled to leave Atlanta at 7 p. m., arrive at Macon at 10:05 p. m., spend five minutes there and proceed on the overnight trip to Jacksonville, Fla.

HOME OF HIS MOTHER.

ROSWELL, Ga., October 20.—President Roosevelt today carried out his long cherished plan of visiting the home of his mother—Roswell, Ga. One of his reasons for coming south was that he might see the old homestead where his mother spent her girlhood days and which she left as a happy bride.

That the visit was fraught with many tender recollections was evident, and as his carriage drove away from the old Bulloch mansion, where his mother lived and married, the President murmured to Mrs. Roosevelt: "I can hardly bear to leave here."

ROSSELL, Ga., October 20.—President Roosevelt is today the guest of the Cracker State. After a night spent in passing through part of the "Tarheel" country and traversing the State of South Carolina, the special train bearing the Presidential party crossed the Georgia line near Toccoa, early this morning and spent the succeeding hours wending its way through the heart of the Piedmont region. The route lay along the foothills of the western end of the Blue Ridge, but it was too early for the members of the party to be up to appreciate its picturesqueness.

ATLANTA FAVERED.

The bulk of the day is to be spent at Atlanta.

The President will be escorted to the State Fair Grounds at Piedmont Park three miles from the terminal station at Atlanta, by two troops of the Twelfth United States Cavalry, followed by the citizens' reception committee, detachments from the Seventeenth United States Infantry and from several State military organizations, together with a representation of organized labor.

At the fair grounds the President will deliver an address immediately following his review of the parade. A luncheon and general reception will follow.

WOMAN SECURES JEWELS ESTATE DIVIDED

Smuggles Them Here, is $13,000.

NEW YORK, October 20.—Rather than take chances on the result of litigation over a $22,000 pearl necklace, which is now in the custody of Collector Stranahan, the Government will accept a check for the amount of duty and return the jewels to the woman who owns them, says the Herald.

This is the conclusion which Leslie M. Shaw, Secretary of the Treasury, reached after conferring with Mr. Stranahan yesterday.

The necklace was brought into the country without the payment of duty by the woman, whose name the customs officials have concealed.

She was followed by Secret Service agents from this city to Philadelphia, Boston and Chicago, and was finally informed that customs officials were watching her.

MEEK ESTATE DIVIDED

Among the many interesting transactions reported in real estate circles was the filing yesterday by Mastick, Van Fleet & Mastick of the papers in the partition of the Meek ranches at Hayward, which, according to the appraiser, involves the sum of $1,020,000.

H. W. Meek, W. E. Meek, Mrs. Albert Sutton and Mrs. E. L. Doran are the heirs who inherit the property, and in the order named their proportions are thirteenth, fortieth and for the three latter each nine-hundredths of a total acreage of two thousand eight hundred and seven acres and ninety-one hundredths of an acre.

The Meek property, situated between San Leandro and Hayward, in Alameda county, is one of

GREAT TRIBUTE TO MEMORY OF HENRY IRVING

Representatives of All Walks of Life at Impressive Services for Dead Actor.

LONDON, October 20—Beside that other great actor Garrick, and under the shadow of the statue of Shakespeare as the interpreter of whose plays he won fame, the ashes of Sir Henry Irving were today given burial in Westminster Abbey thus being accorded England's greatest tribute to her dead.

The services which were of an impressive character were conducted in the presence of a congregation which included many from the highest official life of England eminent representatives of all walks of life and all the representatives of that guild to which Sir Irving was so invariably attentive who could find standing room in the abbey.

King Edward was represented by General Sir Dighton Poole, keeper of the privy purse and the Prince of Wales was represented by Lieutenant Colonel Carrington comptroller of the Prince's household while the Cabinet Ministers and Ambassadors attended in person.

Whitehall Reid who is visiting in Scotland came to London purposing to testify in America's regard for the dead tragedian.

IMMENSE CROWD

Long before the hour set for the services immense crowds gathered around the abbey and those having cards of admission were in then seats as early friends and admirers of Irving but as 10 o'clock those who were unable to find places during the service one to secure admittance remained about of these was a cross of blues from the entrance until the conclusion of the Queen Alexandra bearing the words "To Sir Henry Irving From the Queen".

At the funeral march of the Queen Post's Corner to see the burial place.

SERVICE IMPRESSIVE

The services although short and simple were most impressive. As the Reid sent the family of Sir Henry mourners arrived. Sir Frederick Baring a message conveying his personal regards, the organist of Westminster Abbey, the personal organist of Sir Henry and personal friends, played Chopin's funeral march.

Followed by Purcell's funeral music.

WOMAN BRINGS SUIT FOR REAL ESTATE

Sarah Coffey today filed a suit against Margaret E. Bradford to have a trust acknowledged and a piece of real estate on West Thirtieth street conveyed to plaintiff. It is valued at $3,000 and Mrs. Coffey alleges that Mrs. Bradford, although having acknowledged that she held the property in trust has refused to convey it to plaintiff. The plaintiff further alleges that she has paid the full purchase price all mortgages have been released and taxes paid. Why Mrs. Bradford refuses to convey the property Mrs. Coffey does not state.

CHARGE CONTINUED

The charge of disturbing the peace preferred by Mrs. M. Linnigan against George Hayashi a Japanese, was continued until tomorrow for the filing of a complaint by Police Judge Samuels this morning. Johnnie Keete arrested the Gitton on the complaint of Mrs. Flinn in who alleged that the little yellow man was annoying her without provocation.

AT THE CONVENTION.

As to his experiences while East he said perhaps the most noticeable was his participation in the Bankers convention at Washington, where he was for five or six days. Everything moved smoothly in it except the discussion over the ship subsidy resolution which caused considerable discussion but was finally passed by a good majority.

In returning home by the Southern Pacific he said that the excellence of the roadbeds of the Western railroad nowadays was noticeable. In smoothness and comfort in travel he thought they were fully equal, if not superior, to the railroads in the Eastern States.

The improvements that have been made in the Southern Pacific lines in the portion known as Central and Union Pacific through Utah and west of there were prominently noticeable.

TRESTLE BRIDGE.

The trestle bridge across Salt Lake said Mr. Huff is a most remarkable piece of work. It is about twelve miles long and saves about forty-three miles including a steep grade which greatly improves the line. In other places the line has been straightened and renders much more comfort and pleasure to the traveler.

Mr. Huff is looking well and had an excellent time a good portion of which he credits to the caretaking of his daughter who managed in an excellent way all the details of the trip. They had no mishap until they reached Oakland, when they found the cars so crowded that it was almost impossible for them to get aboard.

BANKER HUFF IS BACK FROM THE EAST

S. HUFF, PRESIDENT OF THE BANK OF SAN LEANDRO.

Attended the Banker's Convention at Washington—Tells of Canadian Country.

S. Huff President of the Bank of San Leandro and his daughter Miss Jennie Huff arrived home last evening from an extensive trip through the East for a period of five weeks. They went by the Northern route through Portland, Oregon visiting the Fair and proceeded from there northward through Washington to Victoria where they took the Canadian Pacific for the East thus getting a view of the Canadian country.

They traveled extensively through the Eastern States visiting Washington, D. C. and many other points of interest returning home by the Southern Pacific via Ogden, Salt Lake and Sacramento.

MUCH PROSPERITY.

In speaking with a TRIBUNE reporter today Mr. Huff said that the most notable feature of the trip was the prosperity that seemed general all through the country east of the Rocky Mountains with the exception of some depression in the handling of stocks in the stock markets of New York city.

There is a general feeling he said among the people all through the East that California is the only place that they want to come to. Its varied material interests its climate and its attitude is for improvement. They are anxious to take advantage of it.

There is more and more of a disposition towards a general movement this way as rapidly as the change of circumstance will permit. Capitalists as well as other people have their eye upon the advantages of California.

CANADIAN COUNTRY.

In speaking of the country traversed by the Canadian Pacific Mr. Huff said that while it of course varied in character as the country on the Pacific side of the United States does and while he saw some good country around Winnipeg and was shown some productions of grain and other things that spoke well for it he was surprised to find a long stretch of practically barren desolate and unproductive country between Winnipeg and Montreal especially the Lake country immediately east of Winnipeg.

BEWARE OF THIS UNDERTAKER IS BUNKO MAN HIS VICTIM

OLD CONFIDENCE GAME IS BEING WORKED IN ALAMEDA

ALAMEDA October 20—A time worn confidence game is being worked in this city by a stranger of unknown appearance who is exchanging bogus shipping receipts at the rate of a dollar a piece. The man called yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Ehrenberg at 1285 San Antonio Avenue. Mr. Ehrenberg was out at his business in San Francisco and Mrs. Ehrenberg was in Oakland shopping at the time.

After ringing the bell the fellow exhibited the shipping receipt to the house maid and said that it called for a consignment of fruit which was sent to Mr. Ehrenberg from Napa and that there was one dollar due on it.

After some conversation the man secured the dollar and made his departure. When the head of the house returned last evening he investigated the matter and found that the name of the steamer given by the man was fictitious while no fruit had been shipped to him. He then notified the police.

The same game has been worked in other houses in the city. The police have a description of the man who is described as short and stout and wearing ragged shoes.

TELLING SECRETS IN THE LIFE OF C. R. LLOYD

Mrs. Nix Did Not Tell Her Husband Before Marriage That She Was Daughter of Capitalist.

The Charles Lloyd will contest was resumed in the Superior Court yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Elizabeth Lloyd Nix who is suing the executors of the will of the late Charles R. Lloyd concealed from her husband Samuel Nix at the time of her marriage the fact that she was the natural daughter of the deceased capitalist while promised to remember her in his will and make her independently wealthy. She is now striving to compel his representatives to fulfill this fact.

This fact was adduced in the hearing of the case late yesterday afternoon before Judge Ellsworth in the Superior Court by M. C. Chapman's examination of Samuel Nix, husband of the complainant.

Did you ask Attorney Chapman 'Know of the relation of Mr. Lloyd to your wife prior to your marriage to her?'

Attorney Goodfellow, who represents the executors, objected on the ground that the question was immaterial and irrelevant.

Judge Ellsworth asked Attorney Chapman what was the purpose of the question.

We purpose to show, replied Mr. Chapman, that Mrs. Nix kept the secret even from the man she married, that C. R. Lloyd was her father.

HUSBAND'S ADMISSION

The court overruled the objection. You may answer, said Attorney Chapman to the witness.

Nix dropped his head, his eyes rolled nervously, and he seemed abashed as he replied in a low tone I did not.

This was the most sensational feature of yesterday's proceedings. It corroborated the story of Mrs. Nix that had concealed from everybody the fact that she was concealed the fact that she was her father and that in so doing had violated his request to that effect and lived up to the promise she had made to him and in return for which according to the complainant's story, Lloyd was to have remembered her in a liberal manner in his will.

This story of Nix's and the secret which Mrs. Nix maintained as regards her paternity is all the more remarkable because the witness testified that a considerable part of his wooing of his bride was done in apartments in which Lloyd, Mrs. Nix and her mother resided in the Davis block on Washington street in this city.

OTHER CORROBORATION

Nix's testimony was also corroborative of the statement made on the stand by his wife to the effect that Lloyd had promised to remember her in his will to give her two fifteenths of the estate after his widow should have received her share. He did not further say than that because he testified that Lloyd had told him that he would make the complainant Mrs. Nix a rich woman some day. This promise Nix said had been made to him by Lloyd at the latter's home in Berkeley, whether Nix had gone for the purpose of getting money promised by Lloyd to his common law wife, Mrs. Nix, Lloyd's mother or the witness wife but which had not been paid. Nix's statement was as follows:

LOYD ASSURES NIX

When I went to Lloyd's home in Berkeley I was asked into the hall. Lloyd walked up and down and said I suppose you have come for some money. He said he had that was just the case—that I had come to get some money for Mrs. Lloyd. He said that he would pay that money some time when the time came. Of course, he said you know of the promise I made to Mrs. Nix to remember her in my will to give her one third or fifteen of two fifteenths of my estate. I intend to do. I intend to keep that promise. You don't want to make any trouble, do you? I will be back tomorrow. I said that I had not gone to see him about my wife but for Mrs. Lloyd and he again said that he would do that matter later.

Nix testified that he and his wife were married in 1900 in St. John's Episcopal Church in this city. After their marriage they resided in a two-story cottage at Sixteenth and Clay streets. Mrs. Lloyd and Lloyd lived there at the time Lloyd would remain generally in his room when he was at home, but there were times when he would eat meals with the rest of the family. His wife treated Lloyd as a son, for which reason he was fond of him, would be a week in his room and would call witness wife in to see him. Mrs. Nix would go into the room and remain there sometimes an hour, writing to him correspondence, mailing his letters and other things. Sometimes Lloyd would kiss witness wife and she would return the kisses in a loving manner.

In order to prevent congestion at the theater, C. R. Lloyd, the local leader of the Southern Pacific, arranged for a special train to take the 1,000 spectators to the theater. The train was to leave at 8:30 o'clock and would be a week in his room and would call witness wife in to see him. Mrs. Nix would go into the room and remain there sometimes an hour, writing to him correspondence, mailing his letters and other things. Sometimes Lloyd would kiss witness wife and she would return the kisses in a loving manner.

BUT FOUND STRENGTH IN DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS.

Used After the Grip and Wasting Fevers They Make New Blood And Good Health Follows.

The evil effects that follow many diseases—particularly the grip and the wasting fevers such as typhoid and malaria are caused by the bad condition in which these diseases leave the blood. As a result, the flesh continues to fall off, the flesh becomes gaunt and irritable, and even slight exertion causes shortness of breath. These are dangerous symptoms and indicate that the system is in a state that invites pneumonia, bronchitis or even consumption. What is needed is a new supply of rich red blood to carry health and strength to every part of the body. Such a specific has been found and in hundreds of cases it has been proven that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People have accomplished this result.

"We are all run down from the effects of the grip," says Mrs. Amelia Hall, of No. 5 High street, Norwich, Conn. "and could not seem to get strength to walk, could not eat a full meal, my stomach was so weak and I was so nervous that I could not sleep. I could only stay in bed a few minutes at a time either night or day. The least little thing would startle me. I had difficulty in breathing, had frequent fainting spells and felt that every hour would be my last."

My general health was completely wrecked and I had neuralgic and rheumatic pains, dyspepsia, constipation and female weakness. My physician attended me for the grip and again for the condition that it left me in, but I got no strength from the tonics he prescribed. In fact, nothing helped me until I tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and they cured me.

I grew stronger and gained flesh from the time I began taking them. I am satisfied that the pills are all that is claimed for them, and I shall always do all I can to make their good qualities known."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cured Mrs. Hall, because they actually make new blood. In the same way, they strike straight at the cause of many diseases like rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, stomach trouble, debility, spinal weakness and the secret sufferings that only a woman knows.

But, of course, imitations or substitutes can't cure you. You must get the genuine Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People at all druggists, or direct from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

ATTEMPTS TO KILL JAILOR

Prisoner Tries to Tear
Open the Throat of Officer Cox.

Frank Williams, accused by the police of being an all-around crook, was released from the City Prison yesterday afternoon, after having served a four-months sentence on a charge of vagrancy and at once turned professional beggar. He hardly made a success of his chosen profession, for Policeman Mulgrew encountered him before he had made many applications to passing pedestrians, and arrested him.

Williams was dead until he reached the City Prison. He submitted to the process of being searched with fairly good grace, but when he was being led to his cell by Jailer Cox, he turned on his captor with the fury of a caged tiger and attempted to tear open the throat of the jailer.

Cox was the more powerful of the two and quickly rendered the fighting vagrant hors de combat.

Williams, who is credited with having served a term in the Oregon penitentiary, and also terms in the jails at San Francisco and other places, pretended to be a consumptive who was afflicted with hemorrhages and not able to do any work.

The following typewritten letter was found on him when he was searched at the prison:

"Sacramento, October 14, 1905. To the charitable public and to whom it may concern: This is to certify that the bearer is suffering from consumption. This man also has frequent hemorrhages. He is unable to do hard work. Any assistance given him will be given in a good cause."

"J. D. WHITE, M. D." In view of the fact that Williams was released only yesterday, the police failed to see how he could have gotten a letter from Sacramento bearing the date of a week ago.

He pleaded guilty to vagrancy before Police Judge Samuels this morning and will come up for sentence tomorrow.

PRESIDENT VISITS MOTHER'S HOME

his mother's young womanhood. One of these is "Aunt Grace," who acted as maid to Miss Martha Bulloch, who afterward became Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, and the other is William Jackson, who decorated the mansion on the occasion of the marriage of its young mistress.

The President was deeply touched as he shook the hands of these old servants. In company with Mrs. Roosevelt he then approached the house, calling to the attention of the company many incidents connected with his mother's childhood. Before leaving the mansion he posed with Mrs. Roosevelt for a picture which included "Aunt Grace" and "Daddy" William.

AT TOWN PARK.

From the homestead the President was driven to the town park, where a stand had been erected from which he delivered an address. He was welcomed to Roswell by Charles M. Reed, a student of Mercer University, who in the course of a well-chosen address, said the only reason he could see for the selection of himself to deliver this welcome was because of the President's well-known fondness for having young men identified with public affairs.

Senator A. S. Clay introduced the President, who was enthusiastically greeted as he arose to speak.

PRESIDENT SPEAKS AT STATE FAIR

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 20.—President Roosevelt and party arrived here from Roswell, Ga., at 10 a. m. The day broke clear but soon after sunrise heavy clouds overcast the sky, presaging rain and causing much anxiety that the events of the day might be spoiled by rain. The thousands of residents of Atlanta were multiplied by throngs of sightseers from the surrounding country and neighboring States. Everywhere along the line of the parade from the terminal station to Piedmont, where the Georgia State Fair Association is holding its annual exhibition, decorations were plentiful. Pictures of the President were seen on every side, many bearing mottoes of praise and commendation to the city's distinguished guest. The route of the parade was about three miles long.

NOISE WELCOME.
The Presidential train arrived at the terminal station on time and as it was sighted every steam whistle in the city blew a noisy welcome. Waiting on the platform were the reception committee headed by Governor Terrell.

A moment later the Presidential party emerged and introductions followed.

To great Mrs. Roosevelt was a committee of ladies led by Mrs. Terrell, wife of the Governor and Mrs. Clark Howell.

Mrs. Roosevelt and her escort departed almost immediately for the Governor's mansion on Peach Tree street where they were greeted by a reception committee of about 100 society ladies, and witnessed the parade from that point of vantage.

THOUSANDS SHOUT.

The line of march was quickly formed and the President and his escort started for Piedmont Park. The President arrived at Piedmont Park about 12 m.

The steam whistles of the city blew an enthusiastic welcome and the thousands shouted themselves hoarse as the President entered the grounds.

A review of the military escort was held, headed by the Seventeenth Infantry, which returned a few weeks ago from the Philippines. From a stand erected facing the grand stand of the race course, the President delivered his address.

Governor Terrell's allusions to the President's efforts for international peace were received with rolling cheers. Mayor Woodward presented the President with a block of Georgia marble, a memento from Georgia's organized labor, prepared by union labor.

PRESIDENT'S REMARKS.
As the President arose to speak he was greeted by the immense throng rising and cheering.

President Roosevelt began by saying that the problems Americans have to face today are very serious but after all they are only part of the price they have to pay for the triumphs they have attained. He cautioned them against displaying a foolish optimism that would lead them also to beware of drifting into blind pessimism in their view of the future. In this connection the President said:

"Undoubtedly the growth of wealth in this country has had some very unfortunate accompaniments, but it seems to me that much the worst damage that people of wealth can do the rest of us is not any actual physical harm, but the awakening in our breasts of either the mean vice of worshiping mere wealth, and the mean vice of the wealthy, or the equally mean vice of viewing with morose envy and hatred the men of wealth merely because they are men of wealth."

CORPORATIONS.

Referring to the question of Government supervision of the great corporations, the President characterized them as "more or less business imbeciles" and further said:

"The corporation is the creature of the State. It should always be held accountable to some sovereign, and this accountability should be real and not sham. Therefore, in my judgment, all corporations doing an interstate business, and the means the great majority of the largest corporations, should be held accountable to the Federal Government, because their accountability should be co-extensive with their field of action. But most certainly we should not strive to prevent or limit corporate activity. We should strive to secure such effective supervision over it, such power of regulation over it, as to enable us to guarantee that its activity will be exercised only in ways beneficial to the public. The unwisdom of any well-meaning but misguided effort to check corporate activity has been shown in striking fashion in recent years, by our experience in the Philippines and in Porto Rico. Our national legislators very properly determined that the islands should not be exploited by adventurers without regard to the interests of the people of the islands themselves. But unfortunately, in their zeal to prevent the islands from being improperly exploited they took measures of such severity as to seriously hamper and retard the development of the islands."

The President said that recent revelations of the marines in which some of the great fortunes have been obtained had caused the conscience of the people to be deeply shocked. He hoped that a good deal could be done by law to remedy this state of things, but when that was done there would yet remain much that could only be reached by the force of public opinion.

ABOUT COTTON.

The President then told his audience that the South's great staple—cotton—had caused the balance of trade to be turned in favor of the United States last year. The statement that China afforded the largest market for American cotton caused him to be the subject of the boycott of our good in China. Concerning this, the President said:

"This Government is doing, and will continue to do, all it can to put a stop to the boycott. But there is one measure to be taken toward this end in which I shall need the assistance of Congress. We must insist firmly on our rights; and China must beware of persisting in a course of conduct to which we cannot honorably submit. But we in our turn must recognize our duties exactly as we insist on our rights. We cannot expect China to do justice unless we do China justice."

CAUSE OF BOYCOTT.

"The chief cause in bringing about the boycott of our goods in China was undoubtedly our attitude toward the Chinese who come to this country. This attitude of ours does not justify the action of the Chinese in the boycott, and certainly some of the forms which that action has taken. But the fact remains that in the end we have done short of our duty toward the people of China. It is our clear duty, in the interest of our own wage-workers, to forbid all Chinese of the eel class—that is, laborers, skilled or unskilled—from coming here. The greatest of all duties is national self-preservation and the most important step in national self-preservation is to preserve in every way the well-being of the wage-workers."

"I am convinced that the well-being of our wage-workers demands the exclusion of the Chinese coolies, and it is therefore our duty to exclude them. But we should not only operate the law with as little harshness as possible, but we should show every courtesy and consideration and every encouragement to all Chinese who do not fit the laboring class to come to this country. Our laws and treaties should be so framed as to guarantee to all Chinamen save of the excepted coolie class, the same right of entry to this country and the same treatment while here as is guaranteed to citizens of any other nation. By executive action I am as rapidly as possible putting a stop to the abuses which have grown up during many years in the administration of this law. I can do a good deal, and will do a good deal, even without the action of Congress; but I cannot do all that should be done unless such action is taken, and that action I most earnestly hope will be taken. It is needed in our own interest and especially in the interest of the Pacific Slope and of the South Atlantic and Gulf States; for it is short-sighted indeed for us to permit foreign competition to drive us from the great markets of China. Moreover, the action I ask is demanded by considerations that are higher than mere interest; for I ask it in the name of what is just and right. America should take the lead in establishing international relations on the same basis of honest and upright dealing which we regard as essential between man and man."

Following the address, a luncheon was served at the Piedmont Clubhouse, after which a reception was held to which thousands of invitations had been issued. A visit to the Georgia School of Technology and a brief address to the 500 students concluded the formal program of the day.

CHewed OFF END OF NOSE.

Max Webb, a waiter in Schultz's restaurant on Twelfth street, is under arrest at the City Hall on a charge of mayhem, preferred by Louis Morey, a cook in the same establishment. Webb is alleged to have beaten Morey and to have hit him with an iron lock.

Morey succeeded in fusing his teeth on Morey's nose. Webb hung to Morey's neck until he had chewed the end of it off.

Morey after the molar repaired to police headquarters and secured an officer who arrested Webb. A complaint will be sworn to, probably this afternoon.

CAUSES ARREST ON INSANITY CHARGE.

John Sadow, a restaurant man, today caused the arrest of Edmund Peter Porsha, a dishwasher, on a charge of insanity. Sadow states that he procures employment for Porsha and also furnishes him with a room, to sleep in. But Porsha, so Sadow asserts, would not work nor would he sleep in the room assigned to him but insisted on going to another house at Twentieth street and Telegraph avenue.

STANDARD GAUGE ROAD.

STOCKTON, October 20.—The board of directors of the Stockton Electric Street Railroad in San Francisco Wednesday decided to make the road a standard gauge and will at once begin work on the system.

After the entire route is cleared the road will be extended into the county and the adjoining counties, as it is the policy of the company to make a complete interurban system to connect Stockton with the towns in San Joaquin and Alameda counties and other prominent cities near here.

This matter has been before the owners of the Stockton Electric Railroad Company for months, and the directors intend to give the public one of the most complete systems in this part of the state.

THE LATEST NEWS OF THE DAY-4³⁰ P. M.

ARREST ALLEGED PALS OF THUG WHO WAS KILLED IN BERKELEY

LOS ANGELES, October 20.—In the arrest of Harry Wilson and Edmund Gowry in a lodging house on North Main street last night, and the discovery of a quantity of dynamite, burglar and safe-cracking tools in their room, together with valuable loot, consisting of jewelry, watches and other articles, the police believe they have broken up a gang that has operated extensively in Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Two others, whom the police believe are a part of the gang, escaped, one, J. B. Kelley, by leaping from a second story window into the street, and the other, R. D. Brown, by being warned that the officers were lying in wait.

The police incline to the belief that the arrested men and others were connected with John Conway, the man killed September 28 in Berkeley by Policeman Lestrango.

They also say there was a woman connected with the gang, but have been unable to locate her.

PHYSICIAN FAILS TO PROVE IT

CHARGE AGAINST JACK ROSE IS DISMISSED BY THE COURT.

After two days' tedious trial, Police Judge Samuels yesterday afternoon dismissed the charge of an assault with a deadly weapon preferred against Jack Rose, a saloon-keeper at the corner of Seventh and Chester streets by Dr. J. W. Rinehart. The evidence failed to show that any weapon, deadly or otherwise had been employed by Rose.

The facts of the case, as nearly as could be gotten from the testimony, were that Rose had employed the physician to attend his wife. A dispute over the attendance and the amount of money demanded resulted in Rose knocking the doctor down.

When Dr. Rinehart recovered from the effects of the blow on the jaw he reported to the City Hall and had a warrant sworn out for the arrest of Rose on a felony charge.

Attorney Rinehart, brother of the injured medico, secured a dispensation from the court and was appointed a special prosecutor.

Two private detectives, A. Sherry and Erwin Frost were employed by the Rinehart brothers in an attempt to fasten the crime of assault with a deadly weapon on Rose. Attorney Larson, representing Rose, and Rose himself, were shadowed by Detective Frost in the hope that in their talk or discussion that something might drop which would connect Rose with a deadly weapon in his alleged assault on the physician.

The shadowing failed to accomplish the desired result. The two detectives finally decided that there had been a weapon used—a club which hung behind Rose's bar. It was shown, however, that the club had not been used for months and the effort to have it introduced as evidence failed.

When the case was finally dismissed by the court, Attorney Rinehart said that he would swear to another complaint charging Rose with an assault with a deadly weapon.

Rose affirms that he merely used his fist under great provocation.

Dr. Rinehart is very bitter against the saloon-keeper, and is circulating a petition, according to Rose, to have the latter's license taken away.

A man is as old as he looks, but a woman is seldom as young as she thinks she looks.

DISPROVE MURDER THEORY

Man Mourned as Dead for Three Years Returns Home.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Oct. 20.—The return of William Ehrenfeld of Whiting, Kas., to his home, as reported in a special to the Telegraph of this city, destroys the theory that he was murdered three years ago.

His parents, who reside here, went to Durango, Colo., upon the discovery of the decomposed remains of the body of a man there three years ago, and expressed the belief that the remains were those of their son.

A fraternal insurance organization of which the missing man was a member in good standing, paid a claim in the case.

FOUR WOMEN ARE GRANTED DIVORCES.

Judge Waste this morning handed down four divorce decrees, one of them final, the others interlocutory. Edna V. Orton was granted a final decree of divorce from Carroll J. Orton, the original decree having been granted October 18, 1904.

Mathilde Michelsen was granted an interlocutory decree from Ludwig Michelsen on the ground of extreme cruelty. Two children, Theodore aged 15 years, and Edna, aged 13, were awarded to the mother, who is also awarded $25 a month alimony.

Angelina Lewis was given a divorce from Manuel Lewis on the ground of desertion. She resides at San Leandro. The couple were married in 1903. Mrs. Lewis was awarded $20 a month alimony and $25 costs.

Frieda Wood was granted an interlocutory decree from Everett Wood on the ground of extreme cruelty. Two children, Alberta and William were awarded to plaintiff who is to be paid $25 a month alimony.

LIGHT COMPANY FOR SAN FRANCISCO.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20.—The Stanislaus Electric Power Company has been organized with a capital of $10,000,000. Its purpose is to provide this city with electric light and power, the motive force to be derived from the Stanislaus river.

SAVED FROM HANGING BY HIS OWN NECK.

CHICAGO, October 20.—Robert Gardner, the "man with the excised neck," who asserted that hanging would not kill him, was sentenced yesterday to life imprisonment for murder. In Judge Tuhey's court he pleaded guilty of the murder of Agnes Morrison last June. The judge immediately sentenced him to life.

Gardner is a sufferer from scoliosis, a malady technically known as osteo-spondylitis. His neck is elongated and as hard to the touch as stone. His attorney, William Pender, declared that the hanging would not kill him, for he said the drop through the trap-door would not break his neck and the contraction of the hangman's noose would not strangle him.

Attorney Beckner's announcement of this startling fact in court probably saved the man from the gallows.

FRIENDS OF INDIANS.

MOHONK, N. Y., October 20.—The needs of the people in Porte Rico were considered at the first session of today's conference of the friends of the Indians and other dependent peoples. Addresses were delivered by Dr. Samuel Lindsay, professor of sociology in the University of Pennsylvania, Dr. Roland P. Faulkner and Dr. Jacob H. Hollander, professor of political economy at John Hopkins University.

CITY BRINGS SUIT.

The city of Oakland has brought condemnation proceedings against Mary E. Dearing, Elizabeth E. Spencer, A. E. H. Craver and others in order to acquire property on Cypress street for the purpose of widening the thoroughfare.

Since December 21, 1903, it has been thought necessary to widen portions of the street. The commissioners' intent is to ascertain the amount of damages and have the city buy up the property in dispute.

APPOINTED APPRAISERS.

James Shea, R. A. Campbell and Leslie Burks have been appointed appraisers of the estate of Edward S. Rusing, deceased.

The first annual account of Charles Trautner, as executor of the estate of John H. F. Richings, deceased, shows $3,667.31 received, $2,354.73 expended and $41,622 cash on hand.

ORDERS WITHDRAWAL.

WASHINGTON, October 20.—The Commissioner of the General Land Office has ordered the withdrawal from entry of all the public land in area 1 covering 1,100,000 acres of land in the Beaver and Lewiston, Mont. districts on account of the land basin irrigation project in that State.

BURNT TO DEATH.

BLADEN, Neb., October 20.—The children of Fred Plei, aged 16 and 4 years, were burned to death, and their mother was so badly burned that she cannot recover in a fire that destroyed their home last night. The oldest daughter poured kerosene in the kitchen stove.

It's impossible for a man to see the point of a joke and feel it simultaneously.

CHARGED WITH A MURDER

Woman Arrested for Death of Woman; Man the Cause.

CHICAGO, October 20.—Mrs. May Buckley was arrested today charged with the murder of Mrs. Clara A. McClusky, who was shot last night at the rear of Mrs. McClusky's saloon.

Mrs. Buckley formerly was a partner of Mrs. McClusky in the saloon business. In the alley at the rear of the saloon and extending four blocks west are two sets of footprints. They show the imprints of a woman's shoes.

One line of these footprints extended toward the rear of the saloon and the other points in the opposite direction.

It was charged that Mrs. Buckley and the murdered woman frequently quarreled over a man.

INDIA AND CEYLON SUBJECT OF LECTURE

Rev. Ernest Bradley, rector of St. Stephen's Church of San Francisco, delivered an address entitled "India and Ceylon," before the Men's Club at St. John's Church last night. Rev. Bradley is one of the most popular ministers of the State and a very effective talker. His talk was closely listened to.

Rev. Bradley spoke of the missionary work he did at Ceylon. He told of the novel way in which he entered into the work. He was adopted into a Singhalese family and lived as a native.

Two children, Theodore aged 15 years, and Edna, aged 13, were awarded to the mother, who is also awarded $25 a month alimony.

Angelina Lewis was given a divorce from Manuel Lewis on the ground of desertion. She resides at San Leandro. The couple were married in 1903. Mrs. Lewis was awarded $20 a month alimony and $25 costs.

WASHINGTON, October 20.—The private car line inquiry was continued before the Interstate Commerce Commission today. Chairman Knapp announced that the taking of testimony in relation to the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe and the Southern Pacific, the two transcontinental lines involved, will be postponed until November 1.

H. M. Emerson, traffic manager of the Atlantic Coast line, resumed the stand and continued his testimony in relation to his exclusive contract with the Armour car lines for refrigerator cars.

LOCAL BOY'S BODY IS WASHED ASHORE.

SAN RAFAEL, October 20.—The body of John W. Wemmer Jr., the eighteen-year-old Oakland boy who was drowned from a yacht a week ago Sunday, was washed ashore near Tiburon yesterday. It was brought to San Rafael by Deputy Coroner Morrison, and identified by Louis Becker, a young boy of his own, who knows the Wemmer family. The identification was made through a silver watch, which bore the initials, "J. W." and some articles of clothing which Becker had sold to the boy's mother while on a visit to San Francisco a year ago.

Young Wemmer was the son of John Wemmer, carpenter, who resides at 1765 Fifth street, West Oakland.

A MOTHER'S LOVE.

What is More Beautiful than a Mother's Love?
"Who ran to help me when I fell
And would some pretty story tell
Or kiss the place to make it well
My mother."

A mother's worries are many. She sometimes forgets her own bodily discomfort because of her overpowering love for the child. She becomes broken down, sleepless, nervous, irritable and feels tired from morning until night. Many mothers of experience can tell you that at such a time they have been relieved, comforted and strengthened and put into proper health by taking a prescription which their mothers had told them was the best woman's tonic and nerve to be taken at such times. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has enjoyed an enviable reputation for over a third of a century. In all that time it has sold more largely in the United States than any other tonic for woman's needs, and to-day its sales are greater than ever. Dr. Pierce made up this prescription from native medicinal roots without the use of a particle of alcohol and for the single purpose of curing those diseases peculiar to women and when there is a lack of womanly strength to bear the burdens of maternal duty. How few women come to this critical time with adequate strength. The reason why so many woman sink under the strain of motherhood is because they are unprepared. Is motherhood a preparation for motherhood? asks the young woman. And every experienced mother answers "Yes." "I unhesitatingly advise expectant mothers to use Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. J. W. G. Stephens, of Mila, Va. The reason for this advice is that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the best preparative for the maternal function. No matter how healthy and strong a woman may be, she cannot use "Favorite Prescription" as a preparative for maternity without gain of health and comfort. But it is the women who are not strong who best appreciate the great benefits received from the use of "Favorite Prescription." For one thing its use makes the baby's advent practically painless. It has in many cases reduced days of suffering to a brief few hours. It has changed the period of anxiety and struggle into a time of ease and comfort.

A DUTY WOMEN OWE THEMSELVES.

"Good actions speak louder than words," so, too does the testimony of many thousands of women during a third of a century speak louder than their claims not backed by any such record of cure.

Miss Emma Petty, 1126 S. Olive Street, Indianapolis, Ind., Past Vice-President, Daughters of Pocahontas, Minnesota Council, also Organist, South Baptist Church, Indianapolis, writes: "For several years I suffered with leucorrhoea, which was a serious drain on my vitality, sapping my strength and causing severe headaches, head-achy pains and a general worn-out feeling, until I really had no desire to live. I had many medicines recommended to me and tried many, but did not get permanent relief until I took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. In two months I was much better and stronger, and in four months I was well. Have no more disagreeable discharge, no more pain; so I have every reason to praise 'Favorite Pre-

WALNUT CREEK

IS PROSPEROUS

WALNUT CREEK, Oct. 20.—As indicating the increased prosperity and undeniable progress of this town and its surrounding territory, the preliminary organization of an institution, to be known as the San Ramon Valley Bank, has been effected. This new financial institution is to be located at Walnut Creek and it will be the first banking house to be established in the San Ramon Valley.

The bank is to have a capital of $25,000, all of which has been provided and subscribed for. Among those who have taken stock are Joseph Naphthal, A. Sharboro and John Hackett of San Francisco, who have large interests in San Ramon, while among local men of affairs who have subscribed for stock are Joseph L. Silvelra, Supervisor of Public Works; W. S. Burpee, W. A. Rogers, City Assessor; Henry T. Jones and others.

Recently Rogers' Hotel, the pioneer hostelry of Walnut Creek, has had an addition constructed, which doubles its capacity.

The town of Walnut Creek was never in a more prosperous condition than at present. It is growing in population and wealth and the surrounding valley is also improving in many respects. The electric railway company, which a short time ago organized to connect San Ramon with San Francisco bay shore, will, when completed, still further add to the material growth of this valley.

HAROLD BAUER.

Harold Bauer, considered by many critics to be the most important pianist now before the public, will play in Oakland next Friday afternoon, October 27, at Ye Liberty play-house. Manager Greenbaum of San Francisco has arranged with our popular journalist, Mrs. Zoe Green Radcliffe, for the presentation of this and other great artists to the people of Alameda County, and it is to be hoped that the house will be crowded so as to encourage Mrs. Radcliffe in her laudable enterprise. Oakland, with its many prosperous surroundings, should certainly be able to offer support to a few of the great attractions that visit California. The program for Friday afternoon's concert will be particularly attractive and will include important works: Schumann, Beethoven and Chopin, and by special request Mr. Bauer will play "The Ride of the Valkyries." The prices of admission will be 50c, 75c, $1 and $1.50. Seats will be ready Wednesday morning, October 26, at the box office of Ye Liberty, and those desiring to order may mail should enclose check or money order and send to Zoe Green Radcliffe, care of Sherman, Clay & Co., corner Twelfth and Broadway, or at the theater. Careful attention will be paid to all mail orders.

WIRELESS STATIONS.

WASHINGTON, October 20.—The bureau of equipment of the Navy Department is preparing to establish wireless stations at the following points on the Pacific Coast: Puget Sound Naval Station, Point Wilson; San Pedro, California; North Head, at the mouth of the Columbia River and Cape Blanco, Oregon; Port Arguello and San Diego, California. Work will begin at once at the Puget Sound Navy Yard and at Port Arguello.

SUDDEN DEATH AT RICHMOND

SMALL BOY HAS "COFFEE HEART"

MOTORMAN PASSES AWAY—ENTERTAINMENT IS A SUCCESS—PERSONALS.

RICHMOND, October 20.—Harry Layers, a motorman for the East Side and Suburban Railway, a young man about twenty-six years of age, died some time during the night, Tuesday, presumably from heart disease.

Mr. Layers went to bed Tuesday evening apparently in his usual good health. His room-mate and bed-fellow was A. C. Hall, and that gentleman noticed nothing unusual in his companion upon retiring or during the night, except that Layers snored harder than usual. This was about 1 or 2 o'clock, but Mr. Hall went to sleep again and thought no more about it until morning, when he attempted to awaken the man, and he was found to be dead.

Mr. Layers has been employed at the old refinery and by the East Shore and Suburban Railway since coming to Richmond. Previous to this he was employed at Martinez by Reuben Curry. He formerly resided with his parents in San Jose, but his mother is now dead and the whereabouts of his father is unknown.

Deputy Coroner Bert Curry came down from Martinez yesterday, and after examining a jury to view the body it was shipped to Martinez where it will be held to await instructions from relatives who have been communicated with. It is probable the carmen of the electric road will conduct the funeral here, but it is not yet decided where the remains will be buried.

For two years the child has been drinking from nine to twelve cups of strong coffee every day. He used to complain of pain in his heart, and for a year has slept scarcely three hours a night, and then only when sitting propped up in a chair beside an open window.

Johnnie did not care for things to eat; coffee was all the food he craved, and except when cake or candy was given him, he took no other nourishment. As he was sick and not expected to recover, he was given all the coffee he desired until a physician saw him and advised that he be sent to City Hospital.

HEART WAS OVERWORKED.

Every beat of the child's heart could be plainly seen. To one inexperienced in medicine, it would seem that the heart extended over two-thirds of the chest region, and the pulsation is of a heavy, prolonged character, quite different from the sharp, quick beat of the normal heart.

The boy is small for his age, and efforts of physicians have been to build up his strength. His treatment has been largely tonics and heart regulating medicines, such as strophantidin or digitalis.

As the heart, like other muscles, can stand only a given amount of work, hospital internes estimate that the 60 beats a minute he is now having is saved by his abstinence from coffee will prolong his life 10 or 12 years.

The heart of a man who dies at 70 years has beaten 260 million times, and if the normal beat is 72, little Johnny Murphy was living twice as fast as any normal person. When he first entered the hospital, physicians freely prophesied that he could live only a few weeks. Under the treatment and total abstinence from coffee he has so improved that his chances for a long life are considered good if the heart lesion and degeneration already set up can be healed.

He is the son of John Murphy of 116 South Fourth street. Mrs. Murphy told the physicians that none of her other children had shown signs of heart disease nor had they a marked fondness for coffee.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Literally thousands of people suffer more or less from heart weakness caused by coffee, and with some, even one cup a day will bring on heart trouble.

The heart that has been only slightly attacked by coffee will protest and make its weak condition known under slight exertion, and it is plainly a dangerous condition to get into. It is a well-known fact that coffee does not always attack the heart, but goes after the stomach. It weakens the bowels of some and leaves the heart alone.

It is plainly classed as an active toxic and its work shows somewhere on most users. It is easy to rid one self of the habit by using well-brewed Postum Coffee. The change in symptoms is shown in a day or two as a rule, and that change shows the user to a certainty that coffee was the destroyer.

It is useless to warn some people, even when it is easy to quit and be well again. So they peg along, sick and miserable, charging their ails to "food," "east wind," "heredity," and whatnot, until some day the stroke comes when abused nature reaches the limit. It's easy to be well if one cares for the joy of health. One of the plain, sure, well-built, and well-kept highways, with sign boards on each side, is the Postum route.

There's a reason.

OAKLAND TRIBUNE

Business Office and Publishing House, 413-417 Eighth St., Oakland.

A Lame Excuse Truly

The Enquirer lamely contends that its vituperative attacks on Councilmen Thurston and Pendleton were not dictated by solicitude for the interests of the telephone monopoly, but by bona fide objections to the terms of the new telephone franchise. The disingenuousness of this excuse is patent.

Our contemporary insists that the competing company shall be shackled with a multitude of restrictions, none of which apply to the old company. It demanded that the franchise be limited to twenty or twenty-five years, after being made worthless by conditions which would make it ridiculous, ignoring the fact that the Sunset franchise has yet thirty-seven years to run. The Sunset's plant is in complete operation, while that of the new company has yet to be built.

Lastly our contemporary bases its intemperate personal condemnation chiefly on the fact that the new franchise has a life of fifty years.

Mark how plain a tale will put the Enquirer to shame. Recently the Council granted to the Oakland Traction Company a fifty year franchise on East Fourteenth street despite the earnest objection of the principal property owners along the thoroughfare. In its very nature this franchise is exclusive. Moreover, it blocks the way for the entrance of any competing street railway from the South. Did the Enquirer chew soap and rave at the Councilmen who voted for the franchise? Nay, nay; it accepted the matter quite philosophically.

Neither did it tear its hair and declare that the community had been sold into bondage when the Supervisors granted the traction company a fifty year franchise. There was no hysterical denunciation of anybody till the Council, in obedience to the demand of popular sentiment, voted to permit a competition in the telephone business.

This competition will put a large sum of ready money in the city treasury and give the municipality a considerable yearly income, besides the free use of telephones and conduits, that will mean a large annual saving.

In all its discussions of the telephone franchise question (if the heated diatribes it has printed can be termed discussion) the Enquirer has studiously ignored the substantial benefits the city will derive from the installation of a new telephone service, and has religiously turned its eyes away from the fact that a refusal to grant the Home Company a franchise meant a continuance of unrestricted monopoly from which the city derives no monetary or other benefit.

Political Bookkeeping in Alameda

The City of Alameda owns its own electric light plant. The Argus makes the following suggestive comment on the last fiscal report of its operations:

"We suppose the electric light reports are issued just for fun. They cannot be issued as a guide to inform the people what their electric light is costing. The report submitted Monday night shows that for the expense of operating for the month of September the sum of $2931.30 was paid out. The sum of $2455.05 is given as earnings, but only $2095.65 was collected. The sum that was earned, not the sum that was collected, is subtracted from the cost of operating, and the remainder, $476.25, is given as the cost of street lighting. But the sum of $2916.19 was paid out for 'construction' and the sum of $8913.94 is due creditors of the department! Yet all it cost to light the streets is $476.25. What the purpose of such a report as this is, unless it is to make the public believe it is getting its light at less than half the amount it pays, is not at all apparent. Why this eternal juggling?"

It is not amiss to remark that many municipal owned plants are enabled to make a showing of profitable returns by just such transparent juggling with figures as our Alameda contemporary criticizes. As a matter of fact, interest on the sum invested in the plant should be charged up to the expense account, along with the cost of operation and the expense of renewals made necessary by deterioration of structural parts. We have not seen the report the Argus speaks of, but the quoted criticism indicates that the interest on investment is not charged against the cost of lighting. Nevertheless it is one of the chief items of actual cost. Whether the money is raised by direct taxation or borrowed, the use of it is worth what the capital would bring if loaned out at the current rate of interest. Uncollectible or uncollected bills should not be treated as revenue in hand nor should a profit balance be struck by failing to debit outstanding accrued debts.

However, the Alameda method of making up the accounts of public service enterprises owned by municipalities is not an uncommon one. It is a method that enables a book showing of profit to be made when there has been an actual loss if a proper balance be struck. But political bookkeeping is not to be curbed or confined by adherence to business principles.

This Black Man is All Right

We copy this piece of advice from the Messenger, a weekly paper published in Alabama by a colored man:

"If the colored people in Macon county, Ala., cannot save their money, buy homes, and become useful in their communities, it is hardly possible for them to do so anywhere in the South, or country, for that matter. We have good land in this county. There is peace between the races, and every man, whatever his color, who is industrious and law-abiding is encouraged; besides there are opportunities for education of the colored children that hardly exist anywhere else in this country."

"We have spoken of peace between the races. We know upon what this statement is based. Notwithstanding there are frequent disturbances in other counties, in Macon county for twenty-five years there has been nothing in the way of racial conflict. Both races consist of law-abiding citizens."

"In proportion as the colored people prosper, in the same degree do our white neighbors realize that they prosper. It is impossible that a colored man can buy a piece of land and make it more valuable without the white man who owns the adjoining farm having his land increase in value."

The hopeful philosophy expressed in the above is all the more cheering for the wholesome view it embodies of the local relations between the races. The editor of this little paper is an evangel of good feeling and good citizenship. He preaches the gospel of industry, self-control and self-respect, and the advice he gives the colored people, if followed, promises the only ultimate solution of the so-called race problem that both whites and blacks can contemplate.

plate with mutual profit and satisfaction. It may not be palatable to the loafing crap-shooter and political agitator, but it is straight and right nevertheless. The good negro citizen makes it all the harder for the bad white citizen to keep a standing and forward political disturbance along racial lines.

Advertising That Pays

"The business men of Scottsdale, Pa., have seen a new light, and have organized an association binding its members to refrain in the future from all 'fake' advertising. Hereafter their expenditure in this line will be wholly to the daily and weekly newspapers.

"This is by no means a new departure in commercial methods, but merely a fresh instance of sensible business men coming to a sane conclusion after a regrettable experience. Some of the men at the meeting called to form the association in this Eastern city declared that they had spent from $200 to $500 a year in 'trying to reach the buyer' in schemes that brought no returns whatever. Their experience is that of a host of business concerns throughout the length and breadth of the land.

"The actual value of an advertisement depends very largely upon the responsibility and the respectability of the vehicle that carries it to the reader, as well as the extent of circulation. Money paid to sharpers in cheap advertising schemes, whose only aim is to fill the pockets of the promoters, is, on general principles, a very poor investment, yielding a few times little and the rest of the time nothing for the cost to the advertiser.

"It has been demonstrated very clearly that in any community the reputable, well-established newspaper is by far the best available advertising medium."

The above, from an Eastern exchange, is well worthy the consideration of Oakland advertisers. If the matter be studied in its right light the mistake of scattering advertisements in ephemeral publications with forced and limited circulation will be apparent. Advertising is—or should be—a strictly business proposition. Its object is to bring the buyer and seller together—to acquaint the former with what the latter has to sell, the merits of his wares and the prices at which they can be bought. This can best be done by putting advertisements in legitimate publications having a recognized standing and a bona fide paid-for circulation. An advertisement in a publication that is given away free or is subscribed for as a matter of charity has no practical value. It receives no attention. It is regarded with the same contempt that is visited on the publication itself. If a newspaper is read with interest because the contents of its news columns make it worth buying, the advertisements it contains will be rated along with the news.

Nobody gives away something that is worth buying; it is given away because it cannot be sold. Space in a valueless publication is equally valueless. It commands no respect from the reader—is, in fact, not read, generally speaking. Therefore, all attempts to reach the buying public by cheap, short-cuts invariably result in failure, and the money expended on them is practically thrown away. If a respectable merchant doing a respectable business desires to appeal to respectable customers he must use a respectable medium for presenting his appeal. A story of bargains told by a tramp receives neither credence nor attention. Alleged advertising mediums having a forced or faked circulation, or distributed free of charge, are in the category of the tramp playing the part of a commercial traveler. Merchants who recognize this important fact save money.

The Graft in the Accrediting System

Says the Fresno Republican:

"It is a fact that the majority of the work which the student does to prepare for the university is exactly the work which is most useful to the student not going to the university. If this is not true of quite all the work, it is the university's fault, but the remedy is to liberalize the university requirements, not to divorce the High school from them."

But the system of accrediting to the State University virtually enables the faculty of that institution to dictate, not only the courses of study in the High Schools, but to practically dictate the text books which shall be used. In consequence, parents are constantly being milked to buy books compiled by certain collegians and printed by certain publishers. For instance, Scott's Lady of the Lake may be required as a text book in English literature, but an ordinary edition will not do. The pupil is required to buy a copy "edited" by a certain university professor and printed, of course, by a certain publisher. It is the same with Bullfinch's Age of Fable—the student cannot use any version but Professor Gayley's. If the local boards of education decline to submit to the graft, their High Schools are not accredited to the State University. To state the case plainly, the power exercised over the High Schools in the matter of accrediting is employed to compel parents to pay high prices for unnecessary books, to the end that favored publishers and text book compilers in the universities may reap royalties and profits. It is a species of blackmail. The way to stop it is for school boards to tell the University faculty to go to thunder, and arrange the courses of study without reference to the accrediting business, which is a humbug and an imposition.

JUSTICE AND THE COOK CASE.

Editor OAKLAND TRIBUNE: Dear Sir—I note your short article about the Cook case in Alameda. You may rest assured that there is not, and will not, be any cessation of the efforts to prosecute the brutes concerned in the brutal assault upon this child. One of them is now under bonds to appear for trial and another is awaiting preliminary examination. More cannot be said at this time, but the respectable citizens of Alameda should not lose sight of or interest in this unspeakable crime.

There is an element in Alameda who, I am informed, have tried to besmirch the reputation of this child by the most despicable falsehoods. No one but those on a level with the criminals themselves would be guilty of such contemptible actions. We trust that it will be understood that my wife and myself are prosecuting this lot of criminals for the good of every decent person in the county, and not on our own account. We have found the city police of Alameda ready in every way to help us and have also found the District Attorney's office anxious and willing to aid. This is a crime against the community and its punishment will rest with the community. At Auburn, Placer county, a less aggravated case was tried within thirty days and the assaulter received twenty years in the penitentiary. Yours respectfully,

J. H. TINGMAN,

1609 Lafayette street, Alameda, Cal.

Dr. Hyde will arrive in New York, November 15. He is to lecture at various universities and in various cities of the East, during December and January. His first college lecture will be at Harvard on the 20th of November. He then goes to Washington to visit President Roosevelt and lecture at the Catholic University of Washington.

FRESHIE

"GLEE"

First of College Dances of the Term.

BERKELEY, Oct. 20.—The Freshman Glee, the first college dance of the term will be held this evening in the Harmon Gymnasium.

All indications point to a most successful glee, the demand for tickets is heavy, and committees are looking for a large crowd.

The hall will be decorated with blue and gold crepe paper from the rafters, with evergreen banked along the sides.

Two huge '09 emblems in green electric lights will be suspended at either end. The stage at the west end of the gymnasium is to be decorated with palms and cut flowers.

Henderson's full orchestra of ten pieces will be placed on an elevated platform in the gymnasium, surrounded by palms and potted flowers.

The decorating and arrangements committees working in conjunction are working hard to make the affair a success. Committees are to be made up as follows:

Arrangements Committee—N. R. Tucker, Chairman; S. R. Fiske; F. Irving; Otto Johnson; R. Poorman, and William Wells; Misses Edna Whitney, Rowena Elster, Margaret Stuart and Amy Hill.

Reception Committee—Henry Snell, chairman; B. Breckenfeld, Joseph Hill, E. Sinclair and R. Bently; the Misses Harris, M. Coogan, M. Griffith, Woodward and Holton.

J. F. Shingle will act as floor manager, assisted by Raymond Clinch and Don Connally.

The patrons are: Mrs. Benjamin Ide Wheeler, Mrs. Hugo Schilling, Mrs. Frank Soule, Mrs. Chauncey Wells, Mrs. L. S. Parlington and Mrs. George E. Edwards.

"Is my hat on straight?" she asked him.

He looked at her headgear in dumb amazement.

"I dunno," he answered. "When it's straight it looks crooked and when it's crooked it looks straight."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

CAMPUS

Enormous Bonfire While Seniors Sing.

BERKELEY, October 20.—Last night's rally under the auspices of the class of 1906 was without doubt the best bonfire jelly-up held on the campus in recent years. The feature of the affair was the bonfire—and it was a bonfire. For five hours the seniors worked at that pile of wood and when the finishing touches were put on there stood the largest heap of wood ever gathered by any class in the university.

The speaker at the rally were: President of the State Senator Hines Lukens, Professor Albin Putzke of the German department and S. G. Masters, '00, editor of the famous "Century" Blue and Gold. The president congratulated the class on the good example it was setting to the lower classes. Professor Putzke told at length of his misfortunes while in pursuit of athletic recreation, while Masters drew some morals from the huge bonfire. The closing speaker was Bertram Lukens, who made the famous "Golden Spirit." During the course of the rally a telegram was received from Captain Ford at Tracy, containing the "best wishes of the football team for the success of the rally."

The committee in charge of the affair was composed of S. Hellman, chairman; J. D. Wheeler, L. J. Kennedy, B. S. Norton, V. McClymonds, A. Ghradelli, M. F. Fisher, W. W. Henry, N. W. Gilmore and R. F. L. Newcomb.

TO ELECT

MANAGER

College Daily to Have New Director.

BERKELEY, October 20.—The stockholders of the California Publishing Company will hold a special meeting this afternoon, at 8 o'clock, in room 15, North Hall. The meeting has been called to act on the resignation of Harry Stoddard as manager of the Californian, owing to the pressure of studies. Stoddard was elected manager last December to succeed William Cavalier, who resigned at that time and was re-elected for a year last fall.

The stockholders this afternoon will nominate and elect Stoddard's successor, who will take charge at once. J. J. Rees probably will succeed him.

ELMHURST AND

SAN LORENZO PARTIES

ELMHURST, October 20.—The grand masquerade ball given by Elmhurst court, Foresters of America, occurs tomorrow evening, October 21. Garden City, county, Women of Woodcraft, of San Lorenzo, also give their anniversary ball this same evening. Elaborate preparations have been made for both events, and they will doubtless be among the most joyous of the season.

Mrs. Jessie Rinehart left her pocket-book containing $11 on the ferry steamer Oakland, and when she went back after it, it was gone.

RETURN TO WORK.

ST. PETERSBURG, October 20.—With the termination of the printers' strike here the factory workers have also returned to work. The establishments in the Schlesinger district were re-opened yesterday without demonstration. The trade has not suffered except small precautionary detachments. All the newspapers were issued yesterday.

A call has been issued for an all-Russian congress of workmen towards the national assembly. The Jews have also announced to attend a general Hebrew congress to meet in Kiev this month with the same object in view.

STEAMER IN PERIL.

NEW YORK, October 20.—The oil tank steamer City of Everett arrived here today from Port Arthur, Tex., with the cargo Standard Oil Company No. 94 in town. During a heavy storm on October 9 a compartment was flooded and the steamer was in peril. By wireless telegraph the steamer Captain A. F. Lomas was informed of the oil steamer's plight and came to her assistance. For twenty-four hours he stood alongside, making a deck on the dislocated car until the damaged compartment was pumped out and was sealed sufficiently to allow the City of Everett to proceed on her voyage.

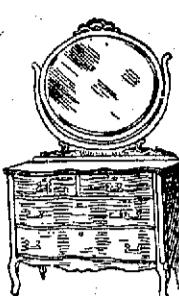

Rodrick—They say Cholly Goodfellow is very popular around town.

Van Albert—I should say so. Why, he wears out two coats a month just from people slapping him on the back.—Chicago News.

The Japanese and Russians may be induced to cease fighting," he remarked.

"Yes."

"They may cease fighting," he continued. "But it will be a long time before they are on speaking terms."

FORESTERS HAVE CONFLICTED BUSINESS

SACRAMENTO, October 20.—The high court of the Independent Order of Foresters, in session at the State capital for the past three days, completed its business late yesterday afternoon and adjourned to meet in San Francisco next year. The sessions today were executive, and several important matters of legislation were acted upon.

In this comedy of a prologue and two acts George Ade is at his best. It is different from most American comedies, for it is not built up in Illinois, but brought to the scenes of a theater.

The stage hands work in full view of the audience and this bit of unordinary in musical comedy is quite pleasant and instructive to those who are not with that musical band the footlights.

Horses were divided last night between Sophie Blotz, Carmelle's maid, as portrayed by Olive Hayes.

She is a very clever little German character actress and deserves every bit of the applause received.

There is a whole lot of T. H. Burton, but as a supporting comedian he is prac-

He is not a bit funny and the only time he creates a laugh is when he is assisted by Miss Hayes.

CURIOUS ACCIDENTS

More Prospects for a Bank at Fruitvale.

FRUITVALE, Oct. 20.—Tom Howard of East Fourteenth street near High fell while piling lumber for E. L. Blackman, Wednesday, and bruised himself so badly that he has been in bed a good part of the time since. The most peculiar feature of the accident was that at almost exactly the same time, so near as could be ascertained, his mother slipped with a pail of water in her hand at the head of a flight of stairs in their home and fell to the bottom of them, also sustaining only bruises, but those so severe that she has also been confined to her bed. Dr. D. C. Crosby, Mrs. Howard and her family, including three sons and two daughters, recently moved to Fruitvale from Santa Rosa.

BUSINESS NOTES.

George H. Lee, father of C. F. Lee, the real estate dealer, it is reported, has bought from Otto Petersen 60 feet frontage on Fruitvale avenue at the northwest corner of Washington street, property belonging to Petersen. Many believe that it is a "cover" sale for the Western Pacific railroad.

C. H. Schively of 405 Montgomery street, San Francisco, has been in town for several days past, in consultation with business men of the city regarding the starting of a bank here. He is reported to have said that he would like to start with a capital of about $45,000. In which case he would desire to put in $25,000 himself, and if the business men here for any reason did not care to go in he would start alone with a capital of $25,000.

TWELFTH AND HARRISON

MAY NOT RETURN

Say San Leandro

Man May be a Groom.

SAN LEANDRO, October 20.—Assistant Postmaster R. H. Gray is on a trip to his old home in Michigan, near Kalamazoo, and his work under Postmistress Church is being done by Miss Dorothy Mariani and Howard Hoest. While Kalamazoo is not Mr. Gray's "home town," it is said there is an attraction there which renders it at this time doubtful whether he will return or not. Much depends on whether the young lady thinks she would like California as a place of residence.

ATTENDING W. C. T. U.

Mrs. S. M. Woodman went to Fresno Thursday to spend a week in attendance at the State W. C. T. U., and from there she expects to go to Los Angeles to attend upon the session of the National W. C. T. U., which is to meet there.

Dr. Torrey, now of Hayward, is at Byron Springs for a week, filling the place of a resident physician there.

BASEBALL.

SOCIETY.

A united picnic of the Rebakahs of district No. 7, I. O. O. F., is announced here for Mora Park, Saturday, October 21, this week, day and evening. No doubt a fine time will be had. All the preparations point that way.

SHORT COURSES

Discussions by Students of Agriculture.

BERKELEY, October 20.—Yesterday was the first day of actual work in the short courses in Agriculture. H. M. Hall discussed the Weeds of California and laws concerning them, and symposiums were led by J. W. Jeffreys, H. C. Stabler and E. J. Wickson. Today "The Orange" will be the general topic. Prof. C. W. Woodworth will discuss "The Black Scale," and J. W. Jeffreys, horticultural commissioner from Los Angeles, will speak on "The Scutellaria." A. V. Stuberhau will talk on "The Fertilization of Orange Orchards" and George Roberts, fertilizer controller of the University, will explain "Fertilizer Control." The lectures will be given in room 18, Agricultural building, at 8, 9, 10 and 11 o'clock, respectively. At 1 o'clock there will be a meeting of the State Association of County Horticultural Commissioners, which will consider the topics "Spraying vs. Fumigation" and "Remedies for Parasites."

This evening Prof. C. W. Woodworth, head of the Entomological Department, will deliver an illustrated lecture on insect structure, at room 18, Agricultural building. This lecture is open to all University students.

Saturday the department will go to San Francisco in a body, and visit the office of the Deputy State Commissioner of Horticulture in the Ferry building.

TO STOP CONTESTS

Cinder Path on Campus Not for Outsiders.

BERKELEY, October 20.—The executive committee of the A. S. U. C. has decided, with President Wheeler's consent, not to allow any but university athletic contests on the campus except academic league contests. President Wheeler approved of this order yesterday and it went into effect at once.

In the future no dual meets or inter-class meets will be allowed on the oval and no High school football games on California field. The game scheduled to be played between the elevens of Oakland and Berkeley High schools this afternoon has thus been declared off and the managers of the two teams are looking for some other field on which to hold the contest.

ELEANOR ROBSON TELLS OF HER YOUTH

She Had Ambitions to be an Artist Before She Went on the Stage.

Miss Eleanor Robson is one of the youngest stars on the American stage, and she has been before the footlights only a brief half dozen years.

"I never was stage struck," said she, speaking of how she first came to go upon the stage. "I really became an actress so that I could be near my mother."

"It happened in this way. When my mother brought me with her from England—you know that I am an English girl—she placed me at school in a convent on Staten Island, New York, while she went out West to fill an engagement. I stayed in the convent until 1897, when I was graduated. In all that time I had been separated from my mother, and, naturally, I was very anxious to see her again, just as she was to see me. But she was playing in the Frawley Company in San Francisco, and there seemed to be no chance for her to come to New York. I had never thought of becoming an actress, and my great ambition then was to become an artist. I had learned to paint on china, and wanted to go to Paris to complete my studies. I wanted to see my mother still more, though, and when she wrote me that if I would come on to San Francisco Mr. Frawley would give a chance to see what I could do on the stage, I did not hesitate a minute about accepting."

Miss Robson made her debut as Margey Knox in "Men and Women," and the San Francisco papers were full of news for her the next morning. She stayed with the Frawley Company a year or more, during which time she made a voyage with them to Honolulu.

Cured After Physicians Said He Had Consumption.

E. H. Jones, Pastor M. E. Church, Grove, Md., writes: "About seven or eight years ago I had a very severe cold which physicians said was very near pneumonia, and which they afterwards pronounced consumption. Through a friend I was induced to try a sample of Foley's Honey and Tar, which gave me so much relief that I bought some of the regular size. Two or three bottles cured me of what the physicians called consumption, and I have never had any trouble with my throat or lungs since that time."

"And will you go back?" asked the reporter as she rose to say goodbye.

"Oh, I hope so," replied the actress. "Everybody was so good to me over there that I want to play there again some time and in something else."

Miss Robson will play at the Macdoughan Theater three nights, commencing next Monday. She will present "Merely Mary Ann."

WILL HEAR BAND ON SUNDAY NIGHT

Mrs. W. E. Sharon will give a theater party to hear Elmer's Band at the Macdoughan Theater next Sunday evening, October 22. Several other musical people will give parties, among them being Mr. J. H. BISHOP IS ALARMED AT JACOB GREENHOOD FALLING BIRTH RATE AT REST

Says Love of Comfort is Largely Responsible for it--Woman's Views.

LONDON, October 20.—The falling birth rate was the subject of comment by the Bishop of London, Dr. Ingram, in an address to the clergy of his diocese in St. Paul's Cathedral yesterday. Like President Roosevelt, he warned his hearers of the dangers of this decrease.

It was impossible, the Bishop said, to describe with what dismay he viewed this diminution of the birth rate not only in England but in the colonies. It appeared to him to be an artificial diminution by artificial means.

The practice of the deliberate prevention of conception had spread like a blight among the middle classes and must be viewed by the Church of England as a sin.

The prevailing love of comfort was largely responsible for this and the clergy must learn themselves to teach others to live the simpler and heartier life which their forefathers lived.

WHAT WOMAN SAYS.

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Omaha, Neb., says: "No one thing contributes so much to race suicide as our modern school system," said Dr. Freda Lankton yesterday, addressing the Missouri Valley Homeopathic Medical Association. Her subject was "The Imperfect Development of our Girls."

She said: "One of the most grievous problems of the day is the lack of development of our girls. Our school system so crowds the child as to divert to the brain those energies which should go to its physical upbuilding. From these nervously developed press Company.

FOR FIREMEN OF FRUITVALE

ENTERTAINMENT TO BE GIVEN IN ORDER TO IMPROVE THE DEPARTMENT.

FRUITVALE, October 20.—Since the Fay residence fire, the faithful and excellent work of the Fruitvale Volunteer Fire Department there, and the appreciative payments by Supervisor Talcott of Fruitvale and S. S. Austin of Twenty-third Avenue, of $50 each to the department, interest in the fire department outside of it has much increased, and the interest of the men who take a notion to render some portion of their duty to their fellows in that way has correspondingly increased. This interest is being enhanced by the fact that, as the section builds up, it is recognized that the danger of fire is increased by the aggregation of materials for it in the form of houses and other buildings.

The principal thing that makes the efficiency of the fire department less than it otherwise would be is the lack of hydrants from which water supply can be obtained. It can only be obtained now from the "goose necks" from which the water carts get their supplies. There is fire-fighting material enough, though at the rate building is going on it must soon be increased, and the men now officering and acting in the fire department have shown that they know how to use it effectively if they have water to put through the hose. Stationed in different parts of Fruitvale there are now one hook and ladder truck, two hose carts with 1,700 feet of good hose, and two chemical engines. The hook and ladder truck and one of the chemicals are at Upper Fruitvale (Dimond P. O.), the other chemical in the rear of P. C. Frederickson's place at the corner of the Old County Road and King Avenue, and the two hose carts in the rented hose house on Bassett street near East Fourteenth street.

Recent happenings, since they threatened homes, have roused the women to active efforts for fire protection, and to make the volunteer fire department sufficient to the work.

The result has been the getting up of an entertainment to raise funds the work in connection being under the direction of a committee of three ladies, who guarantee all the expenses connected with it for one-third the proceeds, so that the firemen have no trouble nor chance of expense in connection with it.

PROGRAM ARRANGED.

In consultation with Chief Cowan, the matter was arranged, and has been actively carried out by Mrs. F. C. Nelson, Mrs. E. D. Bassett and Mrs. K. McClellan, and has been heartily entered into by the ladies of Fruitvale generally, especially in the way of providing for the supper, which is to be served in connection with the entertainment and dance. The entertainment is to take place in Blackman's Hall this Saturday evening, and an excellent program has been made out.

The Miss Maurer who appears on the program is the lady whose recitation at the recent C. E. entertainment in Armory Hall gave such satisfaction. Miss Learner is the accomplished daughter of L. Learner, who formerly conducted the Park Theater in Alameda, and now has a similar place in Berkeley. Dick Williamson is the crack trick bicycle rider of the Oakland Wheelmen. The Fruitvale Sextette was one of the best liked features at the recent "Frisk in Fruitvale."

The testimony showed that October 6th John McHughes, a sailor, fell from the ship as it was leaving Chicago and that, although the captain knew the man was overboard, he did not stop. Captain Swails said that he had seen the life-saving boat start for the man, and that he supposed it would pick him up. McHughes, however, drowned before the life-savers could reach him.

And last but by no means least on the program is the home company of Juvenile performers, the Nelson family, of Fruitvale, with a little friend of theirs who lives nearby, who have often appeared at the down-town theaters. So that the program appears likely to be interesting, to say nothing of the dance and the supper. A grand social time is expected. The program is as follows:

Overture Orchestra
Fruitvale Sextette
Musical act
..... Fred Konier and Harry Brown
Song George Ritman
Acrobatic foolishness M. T. Moran
Boxing Kid Silva and Leonard Lee
Song T. F. Higgins
Recitation Miss Gertrude Maurer
Song Eva Larner
Vocal selection M. G. Eppinger

SLAVERY NEVER PAYS.

The Pall Mall Gazette of Friday week, in an article headed, "Are Kaffir Values Too High?" submits some striking facts and figures dealing with the profits and dividends of the Rand mines. The writer has taken the average expenses of various mines for the year preceding the use of Chinese, and contrasted them with the expenses for June last, when the coolies were in possession.

The results show that in six mines—Durban, Roodeport Deep, Gedenhuis Deep, Glen Deep, Nourse Deep, Rose Deep and Jagers Deep—all worked by Chinese, there has been a more or less serious increase in expenses, while in three mines worked by Chinese—Ferreira Deep, Crown Deep and Langsberg Deep—there has been an equally substantial decrease in the expenses—London Spectator.

"I have always noticed," remarked the man who comments on things, "that wise men are generally the quietest."

"True," replied Senator Badger; "although there are times when a fool knows enough to be silent."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

LOSSES HIS LICENSE.

CHICAGO, October 20.—Because he did not stop his boat to rescue a sailor who had fallen into the lake, the Government license of Captain Frank W. Swails of the steamer Iroquois was suspended yesterday for six months by Government steamboat inspectors.

The testimony showed that October 6th John McHughes, a sailor, fell from the ship as it was leaving Chicago and that, although the captain knew the man was overboard, he did not stop.

Captain Swails said that he had seen the life-saving boat start for the man, and that he supposed it would pick him up. McHughes, however, drowned before the life-savers could reach him.

STOLEN DIAMONDS.

NEW YORK, October 20.—The robbery of diamonds valued at $10,000 from the wife of George W. Headley at the Buckingham Hotel last Tuesday evening was announced by the police today. George W. Headley is a brother of Joseph W. Headley, the financier. The robbery occurred while Mr. and Mrs. Headley were at the theater. A former bellboy of the Buckingham and a waiter were arrested in connection with the robbery.

Mr. Headley is a brother of Mrs. M. W. Hale of this city.

WHAT CAUSES DANDRUFF.

Greatest European Authority on Skin Diseases, Says It's a Germ.

The old idea that dandruff is scales of skin thrown off, through a feverish condition of the scalp is exploded. Professor Unna, Hamburg, Germany, European authority on skin diseases, says dandruff is a germ disease. The germ burrows under the scalp, throwing up little scales of cuticle, and sappling the vitality of the hair at the root. The only half preparation that kills dandruff germs is Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Not only cures dandruff, but stops falling hair and permits a luxuriant growth. Delightful hair dressing. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10 cents in stamps for sample to the Herpicide Company, Detroit, Michigan.

ALEX. HIRSHBERG SECURES A LICENSE

GRANTS PASS, Ore., October 20.—Jasper Jennings, after being kept in a dark cell for a month, has confessed that his sister, Dora Jennings, aged 12 years, killed their father with a rifle while he slept, because she "hated him and because she could tolerate his presence no longer."
